Be patient in all things. Think about the butterfly who goes from a life growing as a larva, then spends time in darkness as a chrysalis and finally emerges as a beautiful butterfly. One thing to be noted is that if someone helps a butterfly as it is emerging from the chrysalis, it won't develop properly. It will usually be deformed or even killed in the process. Troubles and trials have a purpose in life. It's not a lot of fun to go through them but it seems that a cleansing fire is needed to refine us for the purpose

2019 Nebraska Beef Ambassador Program

The Nebraska Cattlewomen are excited to announce the 2019 Nebraska Beef Ambassador Contest that will be held June 4, 2019 at the River's Edge Convention Center, Columbus starting at 1:00 pm.

The Nebraska Beef Ambassador Program provides an opportunity for youth, ages 14 - 24 years old, to become spokespersons and future leaders for the beef industry. The two divisions, senior and collegiate, will be judged upon three different areas of the industry consisting of a mock consumer promotional event, mock media interview and an issues response.

Place holders will receive a cash prize while the winners, in addition to a cash prize, will take home a custom belt buckle. To sweeten the deal, the Nebraska Cattlewomen's Foundation will be providing a scholarship to the winner of the collegiate division.

"The beef ambassador contest is a great opportunity to get more involved in the beef industry. It gives you the opportunity to tell the store about why we do what we do and promote beef in a positive way. I have had the chance to work with younger students in the schools and to talk to consumers at the State Fair, helping them understand more about beef production and visiting with them about their concerns. Helping them learn so they know more about what is on their plate" said Devin Jakub, 2018 Beef Ambassador Collegiate Winner.

If you or someone you know enjoys advocating and are passionate about the beef industry then take a shot at becoming the next Beef Ambassador! Application deadline is set for May 31, 2019.

Please contact The Nebraska Cattlewomen at ncw@necattlemen.org or call (402)450-0223 for a complete set of rules and to register.

of our life.

Don't think about the things you don't get when you pray, think about all of the blessings that you have gotten that you didn't pray for. Stop and think about this - every day may not be good, but there is something good in every day even if it's just the fact that the day is finally over! Surround yourself with people who push you to do and be better. Don't allow negativity or drama. Aim for higher goals and higher motivation, good times and positive energy, and allow no jealousy or hate. Try to bring out the absolute best in each other.

Most of all remember that while life goes on, God is in control. "Appreciate what you have before time makes you appreciate what you had."

The Good Kids

You hear all sorts of testimonies From those who tell how bad their life has been Then you wonder about the good folks, The ones without garish sin.

Now, if they're just good and don't know Jesus, Satan already has them headed to his trap But if they have turned to the Lord, Then life for them is not a snap.

Just being good gains you nothing When life on this earth is past Because it's only what's done for Jesus That counts in eternity's path.

For a good kid to be raised in Christ And not stray from that narrow way Is far more a miracle any time Than repentance from sin's worst sway!

For Satan attacks the Christian With devious ways many fold And if he can trip one up, He makes sure the story gets told.

A far greater miracle any day Is that child that didn't go wrong And it's only by grace and prayers hedged about That their will and resolve has stayed strong.

Don't even think of discouraging a good kid For you will have to answer some day If in deliberate knowledge and lack of repentance You helped lead a good kid astray.

So, help to keep them good kids, Pray for their safety and salvation each day. We need every one of these good kids To help others know the Way.
