Park improvements

MARCIA HORA PHOTOS

Improvements to the Stapleton Park have been completed. Wood boards on the park shelter have been replaced with metal siding. The 30' x 10' building housing the men's and women's restrooms is finished and are now in use. The restrooms are handicap accessible and ADA compliant. The building features a shower in one end. Camping fees at the Stapleton Park are $15.00 per night and are limited to a 10-day stay. Donations are also appreciated. Future plans include the purchase of new playground equipment.

It's official! Co-op approved

The combined board meeting between McPherson County and Stapleton hosted at the Community Center in Stapleton, was nothing short of successful. As the proposal of a co-op agreement in football for the upcoming three years took place, voices were heard prior to

Churches unite for worship service

Local churches are uniting to conduct a Sunday worship service at the Logan County Fairgrounds arena on Sunday, August 20. The Gandy Community Bible Church and the Cornerstone Presbyterian Church are coordinating the event that will begin at 9:30 a.m.

Biscuits and gravy will be served at 8:00 a.m. by the fair grandstands.

The Gandy Worship Team will lead praises to the Creator of our wonderful universe until the service starts at 9:30 a.m.

Pastor Eric Mockaitis will open worship and Pastor Frank Scott will offer insight for broken relationships. A support team will be available to answer questions and pray with worshipers.

Watch for the "Eclipse of the Heart" float in the Logan County Fair parade.

Scott Harvey of Broken Bow will be giving the message at Cornerstone EPC Church on Sunday, August 13 at 11:00 a.m. All are welcome.

Scholarship Blood Drive

Bryan Rooney of Stapleton, rolled up his sleeve to donate at the Scholarship Blood Drive last week in Stapleton. Nikki Boyer, center, and Kaylee Burnside, conducted the drive at the Stapleton Community Center and are working toward scholarships. The girls will be seniors this fall at Stapleton High School and report they had 33 registered blood donors and 32 full units of blood were taken in, making this a very successful drive.

New event added to Logan County Fair & Rodeo line-up

The Logan County Fair & Rodeo has announced another new event this year. A Draft Horse Percentage Pull has been scheduled for Saturday morning, August 19, at 9:00 a.m. No admission will be charged.

For more information or to enter, contact Riley Licking at 308-530-6995.

Last year's new event, the outhouse races, will be back again on Friday and Saturday nights of "Nebraska's Biggest Little Rodeo." To enter your team you may call Stacy Layher at 308-636-8383. There are no entry fees. $100 to the winning team each night.

This year's parade theme is "Once in a Lifetime Experience." The parade will get underway at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, August 19.

Line-up will be at 1:00 p.m. at the north end of Main Street. Pre-entries are encouraged and entry forms may be obtained by contacting Missy Kramer at 308-636-8318 or 308-636-2560. Forms are also available at Creative Printers.

For a complete listing of the 2017 Logan County Fair & Rodeo events and the Logan County Fair premium list, check out the special section inside this issue. Open class entry day is Thursday, August 17.

Hailstorm hits Village

The Village of Stapleton was hit Wednesday evening, August 2, at approximately 6:15 p.m. A storm popped up and dumped hail for 20 minutes, damaging roofs, yards, trees, and gardens. Up to marble size hail was reported and the ground was white as the storm moved eastward. Some hail drifts could still be seen Thursday morning. No wind accompanied the storm. Torrential rain caused street flooding. In the picture above, water runs down Highway 92 past the Stapleton Fire & Rescue building. Weather recorder, Deanna Brummet who lives west of Stapleton, reported a trace of moisture.
