TEN YEARS AGO
JULY 26, 2012

The SMC Cyclone Varsity Football Camp was held July 17 through 19, 2012 at the Stapleton High School football field in Stapleton. The 2012 football boys started learning plays that new head coach Bill Cranston will be implementing for the upcoming season. SMC Cyclone varsity football players were pictured warming up with push-ups prior to their camp that was held at Stapleton High School, July 17-19, 2012.

Alyssa Waits, 15 year-old daughter of Steve and Vickie Waits of Tryon, is having success in the summer 4-H Horse Show ring. Alyssa competed in the District 4-H horse show in Valentine on June 19 and received Grand Champion in western pleasure and barrels. She also qualified in horsemanship and poles for the State 4-H horse show.

THIRTY YEARS AGO
JULY 30, 1992

Chad Farmer of Tryon was injured Friday evening, July 24, when his foot became caught in a power take-off shaft. He was taken by the Tryon rescue unit to the Great Plains Regional Medical Center at North Platte. According to his father, Tuck Farmer of Tryon, a chunk of flesh was taken out of his ankle, but there was no bone or tendon damage. However the toes and heel of his foot are still numb and some skin grafting will need to be done.

The large front window on the north side of Neal Oil Company was broken out sometime after July 14. Gary Neal, proprietor of the station, discovered the broken window Saturday morning. He said a piece of cement had been thrown through the window which caused the security to come on.

Locals competed in the National High School rodeo finals which got underway on July 20 in Shawnee, Oklahoma. Kelly Long daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Long of Rural Route, North Platte, tied for fourth in the girls cutting with a score of 162 during Mondays performance, but did not make the finals.

(Copied from an article online) Losing Spiritual Weight –

Years ago when I was in high school, the mother of a friend of mine was trying to lose weight. Her doctor told her that every extra pound of body fat was like carrying an extra pound of butter. My friend's mom was carrying a lot of "butter" and wisely took the physician's advice to heart to save her life.

Burdens are like gaining weight. It creeps up on us.

One day our clothes feel a bit tight, then our pants no longer button, and finally we start living in Spandex-like clothes without doing anything about the continual weight gain. Jesus said, "For my yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light"

(Matthew 11:30). The word for burdens used in this verse refers to the burdensome laws and obligations demanded by the Pharisees that were never God's intent. The freedom of grace offered

WEIGHTY MATTERS

It's a mighty weighty matter
Be it pounds of me or stress and care.
Different ways to deal with them,
The consequences I must bear.

Food for thought in many ways.
Consume it if you can.
Eat and think on healthy issues,
Many ways are known to man.

Does body and mind reject it?
What's fit for one might not be for another.
What works for me
Might be wrong to my brother.

Think about it for a while,
Chew on it and mull around a bit,
You never know what might come up
If you just take to think on it.
